The Purpose of the Arvin Chamber of Commerce shall be to promote the material interest of the City of Arvin and contiguous areas. To gather, classify and publish facts bearing upon the natural and developed resources of the area. To foster and encourage commerce, to stimulate and encourage both existing and possible industries, to assist in securing markets for our local products, to assist in every way possible the problem areas in our community and in general to coordinate the efforts of groups or individuals endeavoring to make this area a better place to live.

We are attempting to expand our area of development in the Arvin - Lamont area and making frequent contacts with developers, investors and franchises alike. Our Board of Directors are very active and hope that you will take an interest in our Community and its success. We appreciate your support.

We invite you to attend any meetings. Meetings are held the 2nd Tuesday of each month, 6 PM. Meetings are held at Chepe's Mexican Restaurant
